What is the next orbit of growth?

- In the construction business, demand is driven by economic growth.
- Given an expanding economy, we will reach the next orbit – where opportunities are larger, the canvas is bigger, and demand multiplies with an expanding economy and market.

The Indian infrastructure sector and in particular, the construction sector has received the much needed boost in the year gone by.

Let us first study these initiatives and look at the opportunity matrix through ACIL's eyes

The orbit of expanding Opportunities

1.4 Bn: Expected size of Indian population by 2025

USD 974 Bn: Investment needed in India's cities until 2025

USD 1 Tn: Amount to be expended during the 12th FYP on infrastructure through PPP mode

62%: Total investment required in roads & infrastructure

8 times: Boost in infrastructure spending needed in the next 12 years leading to 2025.

The orbit of expanding Opportunities

- Relaxation on FDI Norms in construction industry
- US$ 1 trillion investment in infrastructure targeted in 12th FYP, 50% from the private sector
- New rail corridors such as agri-rail and tourist rail networks creating opportunities requiring real estate for the warehousing, cold storage and hospitality sectors
- 100% FDI allowance in townships and settlements
- Rs. 48,000 Crores for building 100 smart cities under Smart Cities Mission
- Rs. 50,000 Crores for 500 cities under Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation
- Incumbent Government's 'Housing for all by 2022' initiative
- Rs. 500 Crores allocated in Budget towards 3P India to rejuvenate the PPP model

The orbit of expanding Opportunities

- Creating an infrastructure status to affordable housing project.
- Highest ever allocation to the infrastructure Development (INR 3.96 lacs crore).
- RARE (Real estate regulation & development Act 2016) has been introduced from 01 May 2017.
- Providing efficient access and flexibility to raise capital, ensure requirements for developers through incentivisation of FDI.
- Faster project execution due to steadfast approvals; clearance of pending receivables to the private sector via fast-tracked bureaucratic decision-making

As a result of the above, the construction industry is preparing itself to enter one of its most exciting phases ever. ACIL is ideally positioned to transcend to the next orbit of growth by harping on these opportunities.

Positive outlook: Transitioning to the India we dream to build...

- Leaving behind the floundering economy and the policy paralysis witnessed over the past year, the Indian electorate's mandate has ushered positivity, optimism and uplifted the business sentiment within the country.
- The government's increasing focus on the construction industry is expected to generate better order flows going forward.
- The combination of a clear mandate to usher sweeping economic reforms and the promise to replicate the success of attracting investments and building infrastructure across the nation (as in Gujarat), is vindicated by the firm measures undertaken by the Government so far.

Strong growth drivers

- Rising income - Real annual personal disposable income has been increasing steadily for the past five years, and is projected to grow at a steady rate of 8-10 percent annually over the next couple of years
- Wealth creation - Real Estate Holdings - personal and corporate have grown many fold in value. Overall accumulation and generation of wealth has aided in bigger faster expansion plans of companies
- Foreign investment - At least 80% of the private and public investors across the globe area already in India. FDI in India is less than one percent of GDP, compared to 2.4 percent in China and 1.8 percent in Brazil. As a result, rapid acceleration of inflows of FDI in India is expected
- Around 26% growth expected in residential construction and 10% growth in commercial, industrial construction over the next 5 years
- Infrastructure Spend, Policy Action - Formation of a stable government post general elections, which may enable higher investment in infrastructure than before, is likely to positively impact the construction sector. However, a fractured electoral mandate with the potential for an unstable government would be negative for the sector.

Our way forward...

- To create new benchmarks in excellence & quality.
- To build new-age infrastructure that will transform the face of India.
- To expand and deepen presence across sectors of presence and enter new sectors of future growth.
- To leverage best-in-class technology and world-class equipment to deliver quality landmarks.
- To outpace competition to become industry leader.

Are you ready to reach for the next orbit in our growth?
